

SOUTHLIGHT

LIFE WITHOUT ADDICTION

In The News

February 6, 2011

Midtown Raleigh News reported on the approval from the Raleigh City Council to move forward with SouthLight's expansion plans for a six-acre campus.

January 26, 2006

The SouthLight Board of Directors is pleased to announce the appointment of Reynolds (Tad) Clodfelter, Jr., Psy.D. to Chief Executive Officer of SouthLight, Inc., effective November 1, 2006.

October 1, 2005

SouthLight assumed full Responsibility for the operation and management of gender-specific residential substance abuse treatment services for Wake County CASAWORKS.

April 11, 2005

The National Institute on Drug Abuse recognizes SouthLight for its participation in the National Drug Abuse Treatment Clinical Trials Network.

February 14, 2005

WalMart of Wake Forest awards SouthLight with a $1,000 bonus grant. The grant was in recognition of our Prevention after-school program that meets at Massey Public Housing in Wake Forest.

February 12, 2005

SouthLight hosts Working with Families: A Shopping Basket of Skills lead by private trainer/consultant, and author, John T. Edwards, Ph.D.

December 4, 2004

SouthLight accepts the United Way Agency of Excellence Award.